

NUMBER 11

YEAR IN ADVANCE.

SEMI-WEEKLY SOUTH KENTUCKIAN,
TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1887.
CHAS. M. MEACHAM - Editor.

Mrs. Cleveland was one of the visitors to the Senate chamber Friday.

Another Green Smith seems to be the great need of the hour in the New Jersey Legislature.

A new daily paper to be called the Evening Telegram is to be started at Nashville by the Knights of Labor.

Brevity, point, purity, impartiality, enterprize, cheapness are conceded characteristics of the Chicago Weekly News.

It is authoritatively announced that both Secretary Manning and Treasurer Jordan will resign within the next few weeks to connect themselves with a New York bank.

Two dollars and eighty-five cents pays for both the Chicago Weekly News and the South Kentucky for one year, postage paid. Send subscriptions to this office.

By a simple twist of his wrist the President has signed a bill under which the government will pay five broken-down politicians $37,500 per annum to meddle with the private business of the railroads of the United States.

The President has signed the Interstate Commerce bill and it is now a law. Five Commissioners are now to be appointed at a salary of $7,500 each, three of whom are to be Democrats and two Republicans. It is thought the places can be filled without unwilling men having to be drafted into the government's service.

The Owensboro Inquirer has enthusiastically declared in favor of Col. Tompkins' candidacy for Governor in a vein of humor that seems to be aimed at those who are not altogether satisfied with the present aspirants. If Col. Tharpy is a practical business man, he is the candidate a great many of the people are anxious to elect.

Senator Beck's bill to prevent members of Congress from acting as attorneys for railroad corporations, was defeated in the Senate Friday. The final debate was quite animated, Senators Beck and Saulsbury exchanging some very cutting and irritating remarks. After the smoke of battle had cleared away, mutual explanations followed.

Canada proposes to increase her military force from 35,000 to 60,000 men, in anticipation of a possible war with the United States. If that is the best she could do there is not a state in the Union that could not whip her inside of six months and take a slice of her territory and all of her troublesome fisheries in out of the wet.

The Anti-Saloon Republicans of Kentucky are out in a long address in which the next state convention is called upon to declare in favor of submitting the question of prohibition to the people. Hon. J. D. White's name is signed to the circular, as Chairman of the State Executive Committee of the Anti-Saloon Republicans.

A cargo of English-Australian rabbits is at sea, en route for the United States and Hon. C. M. Clay has written a letter of warning to the President, in which he says the aforesaid rabbits are, on account of their ravaging disposition, a worse plague to introduce into the country than cholera, small-pox, or pleuro-pneumonia. At there is no law to the contrary the rabbits will be permitted to land, but the dogs and small boys will doubtless save the country from utter ruin.

The Republicans of the Indiana Legislature, after a great deal of bluster and many loud threats, finally backed down from holding their rump convention to elect Harrison and will content themselves with making a feeble protest against Turpie's taking his seat. The Republican Senators were restrained from going into the proposed convention by the fear of being expelled from their seats for offering an insult to the Senate. The conspirators died hard, but there was no way for them to make 74 beat 76 on a count of noses.

The Supreme Court has decided that all of Muhlenberg county's bonded debt of $800,000 will have to be paid and the county is in a deplorable state. There have been no magistrates in the county for years and no taxes are paid except the State levy. The county officers look solely to their fees for compensation and bridges and other such improvements are built by the people to be benefited by them. Every dollar of taxable property is of course bound for the county's bonded debt and great excitement and indignation has been caused by the reversal of Judge Barr's decision.

Editor Wallace Grunette, of the Grayson Gazette, who by-the-way was himself a Federal soldier, speaks truly when he says there has been too much soldier business in the politics of Kentucky and the whole country. Many soldiers have been statesmen also, but not every soldier is qualified to fill civil offices of as much importance as Governor of a state. Two of the candidates for Governor were Confederate officers, but it is to be hoped they will not reflect upon the intelligence of the voters, many of whom were born since the war closed, by running for office solely upon their military records.

THE EDDYVILLE PENITENTIARY.

It is Well Equipped—What it Will Cost Kentucky—The Convicts and Work.

(Louisville Commercial.)
A young man, who recently paid a flying visit to Eddyville, the location of the new penitentiary, says of it: "From an architectural standpoint it is undoubtedly the handsomest building of its kind in the country. It is built on a high hill, overlooking the surrounding country for miles, and a magnificent view may be had from its towers, which will, when finished, rise to a height of 165 feet from foundations."

"The main building, which is called Administration building, has a frontage of about seventy-five feet, by about the same depth, from the center of which rises this imposing tower; in it the architects intend putting a large tower clock. This building will contain quarters for the authorities of the institution, infirmary, arsenal, etc. This much is completed to the fourth story, being finished from the top 'block and space,' which will be the rough limestone of which it is built, gives it the appearance of an ancient castle."

"Adjoining this building on the right is one wing, which is divided into cells, with every arrangement for comfort and security. Cell house No. 1, which is immediately connected with the Administration Building, has a frontage of 125 feet; No. 2, fronting 102 feet, has 109 cells. "No. 2 is built at right angles to the others and runs back 148 feet, forming an 'L'; this has 189, making a total of 415 cells in this wing. The wing which will be built to the left will have the same accommodations. Over the roof of the building, the entrance is sprung a massive arch, surmounted by the keys of the authority, with the names of the three commissioners (H. B. Lyon, W. Carpenter and ———) cut in the stone."

"Work was begun nearly two years ago by Messrs. O'Connor & Brewster, contractors, who leased the convict labor from the State. They had gone only a little way when, finding they were losing money, they threw up the contract, selling their plant to the State for $10,000. The most of the work has been done in the past year by the State Board of Commissioners, of which Gen. H. B. Lyon is a resident active member. There are now about half a dozen mechanics and 162 convicts at the building, but owing to the cold weather little is being done. The convicts are well cared for, having plenty of good, substantial food, well cooked, and dressed trimmings. Over the entrance is sprung a massive arch, surmounted by the keys of the authority, with the names of the three commissioners (H. B. Lyon, W. Carpenter and ———) cut in the stone."

"This institution was intended by the Legislature that appropriated the first money to be used as a reformatory for the younger class of convicts, and to separate them from their more hardened brothers in crime. They can thus have an opportunity to improve their condition by better associations than could be had at the penitentiary. The institution will, of course be self-supporting, as there is room within the enclosure for the employment of the convicts in such work as the State may direct."

"The first appropriation of $150,000 has been entirely expended, and the second of $125,000, has a large hole in it; but it is thought the part now under way will be completed entirely with this money. It will take several hundred thousand dollars to complete the work as it is originally planned, but when it is completed it will be an ideal prison, to which all honest Kentuckians may point with pride, though they ought to deplore its necessity."

"Messrs. McDonald Brothers, of this city, are the architects. "The superintendent for the State is John E. Kirtley, who is an able official, and who kindly gave me most of the information given here."

Ague.
No medicine in the world will affect such an immediate and complete cure for any and all Malarial or Bilious troubles as Collins' Ague Cure. Guarantees cure with every bottle. Either of Ague, Chills, Malarial fever, or Biliousness, Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint. Money refunded in every case of failure.

J. E. ARMSTRONG,
Hopkinsville, Ky.

The twenty-four hour system of time was adopted by the Union Pacific Railway on January 1st. Hereafter that road will have no a. m. and p. m. in its time, but will count from 1 to 24. One o'clock at night is 13 o'clock, two o'clock is 14, 3 is 15, and so on up to 24—midnight. This system of time will eventually be adopted everywhere. It is vastly more convenient, and not liable to so many mistakes as the old system. The Union Pacific clocks and watches are now being altered to the 24-hour system. No trouble exists in counting the new time. Add the hour you want to 12, and you have it. For instance, if you wish to know what time, according to the new system, 10 o'clock at night is, add 10 to 12 and you have 22, 11 to 12 is 23 and 12 to 12 is 24.

F. M. Prussing, of Warrensburg, was clubbed to death and robbed while going home from his store Thursday night, by unknown parties.

The examining trial of the parties charged with the murder of the Poe family of eight persons in Knox county resulted in the holding over without bail of Mrs. Permelia Warren, Brice Mills, Miss Alabama Mills, Felix Mills, W. Riley Smith and Elias Jackson. They are in jail at Harboursville.

Wives! Mothers! Daughters!
BE YOUR OWN PHYSICIAN!
A lady who for years suffered from various troubles, such as Leucorrhoea, Suppressions, &c. so common among our Wives, Mothers and Daughters, and had despaired of being cured, finally found remedies which completely cured her, after all else had failed. Any lady can use the remedies and cure herself, without being subjected to a medical examination. From gratitude she will send FREE receipts. Treatise and full directions sealed. Address (with stamp) Mrs. W. C. Holmes, 658 Broadway, N. Y. (Name paper.)

Good Ghost Story.

LEXINGTON, VA., Feb. 3.—Much excitement exists at the Virginia Military Institute and throughout this place over an inexplicable phenomenon. On the night of the 28th, shortly after 12 o'clock, as the sentinel was walking his beat, his attention was attracted through the saltpore to the front of barracks by a slight sound resembling the rustling of leaves. Instantly between the two large forty-six pound siege guns there appeared a soldier dressed in a Confederate uniform and mounted on a large gray horse. His sword was drawn, his horse tightly reined up, and two white plumes floated above his head. The sentinel, at first amazed, then terrified, stood at the saltpore until the courtyard at a round turn, crossing the sentinel's beat, making no audible sound, although he was passing over a solid brick pavement. The sentinel challenged, with a loud voice, "Who goes there?" The rider did not heed the challenge, but passed on at the same pace until arriving at an abrupt, dangerous and impassable precipice in rear of the barracks, he vanished. The sentinel promptly called his corporal, who informed the Lieutenant of the guard and the officer of the day.

The guard was immediately turned out, and though a close and minute search was instituted no trace of horse or rider could be found. On the next night a similar phenomenon was witnessed by a party of cadets and citizens. This time a sentinel was stationed in the center of the saltpore to await the reappearance of the horse and rider. At the same time as on the night before, preceded by the same sound, the horse and rider appeared and started through the saltpore at a great pace. The sentinel commanded, "Halt! Who goes there?" The horse approached nearest to the sentinel, until within two feet of the point of the bayonet, and vanished, only to re-appear just in the rear of the sentinel; he had taken the preceding night, again disappearing at the edge of the precipice. An old veteran present recognized the form of the rider to be none other than that of Gen. Stonewall Jackson. So far no explanation can be given.

Another of those terrible railroad disasters which have become so common of late, occurred at Woodstock, Va. last Saturday. Two sleepers and two passenger coaches full from the bridge over White river 60 feet into the water. Thirty-five or forty persons were killed and as many more injured. The bridge and cars caught fire and all above water was burned.

Five armed men boarded a train at Alliance, O., Friday before day and forcibly rescued Harry McMunn, a Pittsburgh robber, from two detectives, both of whom were shot down and perhaps fatally wounded. All of the men and the prisoner jumped from the train and made their escape.

The Verdict Unanimous.
W. D. St. Druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles and was cured of rheumatism of 30 years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Belleville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 years' experience, is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only a half dollar a bottle at Garner's Drug Store.

A NATIONAL REPUTATION.
 Dr. H. M. Sherman our Noted Specialist—the Afflicted From all Parts of the Country Seeking his Skill and Advice.
 Monday and Tuesday Dr. Sherman's offices were crowded with patients from adjoining counties and States. The names of the following are a few of the many who placed themselves under the Doctor's treatment and care:
 Mr. J. T. Patterson, Owensboro, Daviess Co., Ky.; Mr. Rufus Obermyer, Fordsville, Ohio Co., Ky.; Mr. A. H. Blank, Grand View, Indiana; Mrs. Martha Lynn, Evansville, Ind.; Mr. J. R. Lancaster, Rockport, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Lambkins, Nashville, Tenn.; Mr. Hiram Woodruff, Louisville, Ky., and many others from Christian Co. Dr. Sherman's success in the treatment of chronic diseases is wonderful. A great many of our best citizens who have suffered for years are now under his treatment and care, and are improving rapidly. The Doctor will visit Fairview, Ky., Tuesday and Wednesday, February 15th, and 16th. He will return to Hopkinsville on the 17th, and remain until the 21st, and visit Trenton, Ky., on the 22nd, and 23rd, of February; return to Hopkinsville on the 24th, and remain permanently at his National Dispensary on 7th street, in rear of Bank of Hopkinsville—New Era.

The Civil Service Reformers
 say their object is simply to retain good men in office when you find them. This theory may be safely applied to the treatment of the human system by means of medicine. Those who have once tried Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" for scrofulous swellings and sores, loss of flesh and appetite, weak lungs, splitting of blood, and consumption, will apply to the real principle of Civil Service Reform and "hold fast to that which is good."

 Mr. Gano Henry, Jr., of Newstead and Miss Hattie Bryan, youngest daughter of Mr. T. S. Bryan, will be married this afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's father on South Virginia street.
 Old "Aunt" Rebecca Garrett, col, aged 86 years, died Saturday night at the home of Mr. J. H. Bradshaw, Longview, Ky. She was the oldest woman in that section of the county. She came from Virginia in 1815.
 Mr. John J. Reed, of Bellevue, has our thanks for a sample of the orange crop of his brother-in-law, Mr. W. R. Wolfe, who went to Florida a few years ago to live. They are as fine specimens of Florida's great staple as one could wish to see and for size and flavor are not to be excelled.
 Mr. Jos. Thomason, the State agent for the "Chemical Hand-Fire Annihilator," gave an exhibition of the manner in which the machine operates, by putting out a fire kindled on Main Street yesterday evening. The State right is owned by Smith & Guthrie, who are introducing the machines.
 Fred. Warde was born in London, England, 38 years ago. He has been in America many years and has been on the stage for more than a decade. He has made several hundred thousands of dollars out of his profession and has a wife and four children living in Vermont.
 Notice is made in another column of our new presses, and all those who want strictly first-class work should bring it around. We now have a job department in connection with our paper, second to none, and all orders entrusted to us will be promptly attended to.
 The Warde Company concluded the week's engagement Saturday night with the great play of Damon and Pythias, in which Mr. Warde delighted a large audience in the character of Damon. Richard III on Friday night was a fine performance, and the two farces at the matinee were very amusing and showed that Mr. Warde is good in comedy as well as tragedy. The weather was bad during the entire week but the engagement was a decided success and Mr. Warde was so well pleased that he may be expected to visit us again in the future.
 A man named Wm. Barnes, from Mississippi, came about the first of January and engaged to make a crop with Robt. McKee, near Edwards' Mill. In a few days thereafter the entire family of six persons was taken down with pneumonia and measles. On Jan. 20th, one of the boys, nearly grown, died and a second died a few days later and on last Saturday the third and youngest boy, 11 years old, followed his brothers. The father, mother and little girl have all been prostrated and the father is still in a critical condition. Mr. Barnes is a poor man and his misfortunes have fallen upon him with crushing weight.
 Mr. and Mrs. Thos. W. Long entertained Mr. Frederick Warde on Friday evening last. Twenty-five guests were present and the affair was one of unusual brilliancy and pleasure. The supper embraced everything that an epicure could desire and the occasion was, taken all in all, one long to be remembered by those present. Following is a list of those in attendance: Mr. Frederick Warde, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Payne; Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Walker; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Downer; Dr. and Mrs. R. R. Bourne; Mrs. E. B. W. Tibbs.

MACEDONIA, KY.

MACEDONIA, Feb. 5.—But very few of our farmers have sold their tobacco yet.
 Little George White, of this place, cut his foot with an axe last week, inflicting a very painful wound, with good care, however, he will soon be able to go about again.
 Did, of consumption at his home near this place on the 24th ult., Mrs. C. W. Paterson. She leaves an infant about 3 or 4 months old. Her grief-stricken husband has the sympathy of the community.
 Miss Viola, daughter of Prof. Reuben Cook, an accomplished young lady of the vicinity of Wood's chapel, is said to have a hopeless case of consumption.
 Mrs. Florence McIntire who was called to the bedside of her sister, Miss Cook, has returned to her home at Fulton, Ky. Mr. Adrian Cook, who accompanied Mrs. McIntire, remains with his sick sister.
 Mr. W. J. Cardin, formerly of this vicinity, but now of Crittenden county, came up on a visit last week; on his way he drove into a swollen stream near this place and he with his fine span of horses came near being drowned. After they had floated some 30 or 40 yards below the ford, Mr. Cardin deserted the buggy and caught the branches of a bush and pulled himself to the shore. His noble steed succeeded in climbing up a steep bank with the buggy. Your correspondent paid a flying visit to your city this week, where he met a good many old friends, among whom were the family of Dr. E. M. Berry.
 Trade water river was on a high yesterday evening, when the water was still rising. It probably reached a tide higher than it has reached for years before.

ROUGH AND READY.
BEVERLY RACKET.
 BEVERLY, Ky., Feb. 5.—Born to the wife of Howard Major, a 22 pound boy.
 Mr. G. B. Coombs, the cattle king of Christian County, was in our midst a few days since.
 Mr. J. T. Turner will move here to locate in a few days, and the clang of the village blacksmith's hammer will soon break the monotony that once seemed destined to exist here forever.
 Mr. Rock Radford is erecting a nice fence around his lots here, and we understand, will commence the erection of a new residence soon.
 Miss Joe Mallory, who has been very dangerously ill of typhoid fever, is able to be up again.
 Capt. Jno. D. Jones, the affable local agent for the Grange Warehouse, Clarksville is doing a fair business and is well liked in the market of our largest producers of the weed to patronize the Clarksville market. While we dislike to see so many farmers of South Christian, turning their backs on their own tobacco market at Hopkinsville, we cannot refrain from congratulating Mr. Jones on his complete and gratifying success as local agent for the Grange Tobacco Warehouse at Clarksville.
 The prospective marriage we mentioned last week, has not come off yet, but keep a sharp lookout, yet will hear from us before long. I expect some folks will be somewhat surprised about it too, so don't fail to read every issue of the KENTUCKIAN from now on, for fear you miss something rich. I must desist. So long.

 ROVER
DEATHS.
 Coombs: A little eight-year-old daughter of John Coombs, of Crofton, died Saturday night of brain fever. The remains were brought to the city yesterday and interred in the city cemetery.
 P. Pool: Dudley, son of Lucian P. Pool, of Bainbridge, died Saturday night of pneumonia and measles. He was eight years of age. The body was brought here Sunday for interment.
 Bruce: At the residence of Thos. Haddock, five miles from the city, on Saturday last, Thos. Jeffrey Bruce, aged about 50 years. He died of consumption of the bowels and was buried at Mr. Haddock's burying ground.
 Mr. N. L. Osborne, a merchant of Bennington, accidentally shot himself last Wednesday evening and died in a few minutes from the effects of the wound. He was in the back room of his store-house trying to twist a load out of one of the barrels of a double-barreled gun, when the gun was discharged, the load entering the bowels and ranging upwards. No one was present at the time. He lived long enough to tell that it was an accident and to ask Dr. Collins, who was called at once, if he thought the wound would prove fatal. He was a man of family, leaving a wife and several children. His life was insured for $1,500.
Excitement in Texas.
 Great excitement has been caused in the vicinity of Paris, Tex., by the remarkable recovery of Mr. J. E. Corley, who was so helpless he could not turn in bed, or raise his head; everybody said he was dying of consumption. A trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery was sent him. Finding relief, he bought a large bottle and a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills; by the time he had taken two boxes of Pills and two bottles of the Discovery, he was well and had gained in flesh thirty-six pounds. Trial bottles of this Great Discovery for Consumption free at H. B. Garner's.

Our New Presses.

We have just disposed of our old-time Jobbers and supplied our office with two brand new Challenge Presses, 7x11 and 13x19, made by the Shindewend & Lee Co., of Chicago.

 We are determined to keep up the progress made in our line of business, and hence the purchase of presses that stand at the head of the market. We examined the different makes of presses, and were some time in making a selection, but when the many advantages of the Challenge were made known to us, we felt assured we could derive more benefit from this style of press than from any other. The Challenge press is an improvement on the old style Gordon, but is stronger built. One great fault with presses heretofore sold is that they were not built strong enough in the bed and platen to prevent distorting, thereby causing a job to print on all four corners, but would not show up in the center. In the Challenge this difficulty has been overcome, and forms that fill the chase can be printed with as much ease as a small card, without injury to the press. The presses are made with patent throw-off, thereby saving spilage of printing; spring chase hook, which is instantaneous and saves much time; patent depressible grippers, that hold the paper securely, thereby preventing a blur. Last, but not least, is the fountain to this press, which stands without an equal, and which will save enough in time to pay for the press in 5 years. It is so constructed as to receive pretty much the same feed of ink as a cylinder press, the flow of which can be regulated in an instant. Messrs. Shindewend & Lee Co., are to be congratulated on the success the Challenge presses have met with, and all that is wanted to effect a sale is to see them in operation. To those of our fellow craftsmen who are in need of presses, we would say, do not buy until you examine the many excellent points of the Challenge. Any information in regard to these presses will be cheerfully given by addressing the above named firm.
 Mr. J. M. Cayce has sold his place near Edwards' Mill to Mr. W. A. Lowry for $10,000 cash. The place was improved by Mr. W. W. Garritt and has first-class improvements all new, including a new brick house with ten rooms. The farm contains 250 acres and adjoins another tract recently purchased by Mr. Lowry.
A Chance for Health.
 Is afforded those fast sinking into a condition of hopeless debility. The means are at hand. In the form of a general medicinal cordial, Dr. Sherman's Stomach Bitters embodies the combined qualities of a blood purifier and depurative, a tonic and an alterative. While it promotes digestion and assimilation, and stimulates the appetite, has the further effect of purifying the life current and strengthening the nervous system. As the blood grows richer and purer by its use, they who resort to this sterling medicinal agent, acquire not only vigor, but healthy sensibility. A healthy change in the accretions is effected by it, and that sure and rapid physical decay, which is a chronic obstruction of the functions of the system, is arrested. The prime causes of disease being removed, health is speedily renovated and vigor restored.
DISSOLUTION.
